Call for interest!

A Space For Lismore Art Project

January -
September
2026

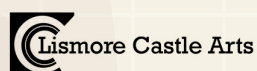

An invitation to take part in an art project exploring the history, stories & experiences of Lismore women past and present, with artist Debbie Godsell.

Join us for a series of printmaking & textile printing workshops, and discussions beginning in January 2026. Participants will collaborate with Debbie on the development of a visual art exhibition, which will open in our St Carthage Hall gallery space next September.

Women who live in or who have a connection to Lismore are invited to take part. Interested participants are encouraged to get in touch with the Lismore Castle Arts team at:
